

A diagram of a circular component, labeled 414, which is a ring or washer. It consists of a large outer circle and a smaller concentric inner circle, representing a central hole. The label 414 is positioned to the right of the outer circle, with a leader line pointing to its boundary.

